and urban adaptation

Naturethon Final Event

NATURETHON

WEBINAR 17.9.24 | 16:00 CEST

From global to glocal:

Financing NbS for climate action

and urban adaptation

SILVIA AINIO
European Climate Pact
Ambassador

MARIANNE ZANDERSEN
Aarhus University

The Naturethon team invites you to join the final event of its first webinar series co-organized with the project Invest4Nature. The webinar discusses financing frameworks with an impact, drawing special attention to cities and the social value of nature-inspired solutions for adaptation in the urban environment.

Silvia Ainio, climate policy expert specializing in international climate negotiations and sustainable finance, will provide a global overview of the main challenges in financing nature-based solutions, particularly related to scaling up the role of the private sector and illustrate a few innovative examples on how could these be overcome.

Following, Marianne Zandersen, professor in environmental economics at Aarhus University, Denmark, will talk about social and economic benefits and values from NbS at the urban scale, focusing on well-being and health values. She will show an example of a mixed method approach that considers the multiple values that we might assign to NbS on the benefits, importance and usefulness of NbS.

The Naturethon final survey

Share your ideas with us!

Navigating New Paths for Nature-based Solution Finance

The final Naturethon survey is now open to submit unique ideas on local tailored and actionable Nature-based Solutions.

This final survey aims to collect the ideas discussed within citizen groups in various formats, including drawings, text, videos, and any means to convey the imagined solution. All the submissions will be collected in a comprehensive proceeding of the Naturethon and reviewed by experts; each group will receive a certificate of completion. The best inspiration solutions will be rewarded by: (1) NATURANCE recognition and enrollment in our research and evidence seeking program, (2) inviting the representatives of the teams to high-level project gathering.

We look forward to seeing your innovative ideas!
